REAL WORLD RESULTS

ANYTIME, ANYWHERE ACCESS

JOURNEY.DO: THE FIRST AI POWERED GROWTH PROGRAM

From early intervention, academic advising, skill-building, and career readiness to ongoing support, students struggling with challenges or seeking direction can access the Journey.Do platform anytime, anywhere, on any device. This enables realtime collaboration with trained advisors, ensuring personal growth and resilience.

All data is securely managed, with participants using SSO and 2FA within the learning app. Our staff are trained in confidentiality and best practices for student support, and AI is utilized to deliver high-quality, personalized feedback.

Designed for a mobile-first generation, our connected growth platform ensures students feel seen, supported, valued, and empowered throughout their educational and career journey.

The Journey.Do program, in partnership with the National Science Foundation, has developed a groundbreaking Al-Powered Growth Program for student success and career readiness. Al is seamlessly integrated into the platform's core, with a focus on fostering human connection through actionable, personalized insights.

As students engage in their growth journeys, the AI compiles unique, strength-based and trauma-informed insights from these interactions. These insights empower advisors, educators, and counselors, enhancing their ability to support students through meaningful connections, personalized coaching, and tailored development plans.

Additionally, these insights can be aggregated across groups, advisors, and organizations, providing a powerful tool for school and program leaders to assess the effectiveness of their student success initiatives.

INTAKE TO OUTTAKE

JOURNEY.DO: RESEARCH-BASED BEHAVIORAL CHANGE FRAMEWORK

All programs are based on our research-based, behavioral change framework to ensure change happens. The framework is deployed using our coaching dashboard and Al-enhanced platform, so we can provide personalized care from intake to outtake.

We start programs with aligned motive, built through an intake meeting. Al is used to create a personalized growth plan. The plan is validated by shared by your staff and the student.

Students then progress through Modules, receiving strength-based feedback from our coaches as the capstone of each Module. Growth happens as part of small groups, using our safe and secure, small group anytime, anywhere, journey platform. Gamification meters track progress.

Al insights are always available to your advisors. Certificates are earned in each growth area. Upon completion, an Al-enhanced transition plan is created and shared with relevant parties.
